

Amarinth

certificate of decontamination

Amarinth Ltd.
Bentwaters Parks
Rendlesham
Woodbridge
Suffolk, IP12 2TW
United Kingdom

tel: +44(0)1394 462 120
fax: +44(0)1394 462 130
enquiries@amarinth.com
www.amarinth.com

Amarinth Ltd enforces a strict safety policy on the return of equipment to our works to ensure our employees are not exposed to hazardous materials and to comply with current Health and Safety legislation regarding the disposal of such material. This certificate of decontamination must be completed and returned prior to any equipment arriving at our site. Any equipment arriving without this certificate being will not be accepted and will be returned to the originator.

Company name:

Address:

Telephone: Fax:

Customer ref / order no.

Pump type / part description:

Serial / part no.

Reason for return:

Tick as appropriate:

- Item has not been used for service with any hazardous substance.
- Item has been used for service with the following hazardous substances:
(Give specific details and provide all safety data sheets)

.....

The following decontamination procedures have been performed:

.....

.....

I hereby declare that the equipment is now completely neutralised, decontaminated, cleaned both inside and out and fully drained such that no special safety precautions are necessary for further handling. I assure you that the above information is correct and complete and that shipment was effected in accordance with all statutory provisions.

Signed:

Name (print):

Position:

Date: