WELCOME - to Bosch Rexroth's partner network!

Sales, Distribution, and Service

Bosch Rexroth operates through a vast network of distributors and service providers. Our partners across the UK & Ireland supply our products and services, and we continuously develop this network to create successful solutions for our shared customers.

To streamline your purchasing process, we now direct your company straight to our certified partners for product and service purchases. This gives you closer contact and faster results. See all our certified partners here: LINK

CERTIFIED EXCELLENCE

The Certified Excellence partner concept plays a crucial role in Bosch Rexroth's commitment to providing top-level service. These certified partners are independent companies and are not part of the Bosch Group. The concept is built on a global standard, defining the requirements for becoming a certified partner in four key areas: Service, Distribution, Solution, and Training. This ensures that all partners worldwide meet Bosch Rexroth's high standards for expertise and quality.

Our certified partners are Bosch Rexroth experts, ensuring fast, precise, and hassle-free support – so you get the right solutions, right when you need them!

Need help choosing the right partner or have other questions? Don't hesitate to reach out!

Kind regards,

Andrew Minturn
