

Allcott Commercial Expands: Commercial Valuations & Expert Witness

Gary Thompson FRICS recently joined Allcott Commercial to head up our Commercial Valuations and Expert Witness teams. Gary will use his decades of experience in the field to expand our work in these areas of general practice surveying, helping clients up and down the country.

We are delighted to announce that Gary Thompson FRICS, RICS Registered Valuer, has joined Allcott Commercial as a Partner. Having been made a Fellow of the Incorporated Society of Valuers and Auctioneers 1996, and working in expert witness and valuations ever since, Gary's expertise is vast.

From supporting clients with valuations of large commercial premises, to carrying out rent reviews and matrimonial and probate work, Gary's valuations experience will prove invaluable to our team. His Expert Witness credentials are equally impressive, having supported countless clients with disputes, CPR 35 compliant reports and attending courts across the country, including The Royal Court of Justice.

Matthew Baker, Commercial Partner noted "Gary brings a wealth of knowledge that is difficult to match. With experience in almost every aspect of commercial valuations and expert witness, Gary will be a fantastic support to our clients and colleagues alike. We are thrilled he has joined the Allcott team."
