"I wish I'd done it years ago." Says Peter Lay from Hydroblast Scientific & Pharmaceutical Cleaning.

When he ordered some promotional caps from us recently he never dreamed that people would send him selfies from all over the world!

Andy Bell from Erasure dropped in to pick up his cap.

"We've received photographs from people wearing our promotional caps with our logo on from holiday destinations all over the world as well as at their local pub, on the golf course and lots of other sporting activities.

The list is endless and they're still rolling in hard and fast."
